

THE UNIVERSITY OF LOUISIANA AT LAFAYETTE

Application for Master's Graduate Fellowship

University master's fellowships include a $9500 non-renewable ten-month stipend and waiver of tuition and most fees (approximately $15,910 for non-resident students). Contact the Graduate School for availability of Board of Regents Support Fund fellowships. Program descriptions may be found in the current Graduate Catalog, which is available on UL Lafayette's internet home page: www.louisiana.edu.

Completed applications must be submitted by February 15. A completed application includes this form, an application to the Graduate School, official transcripts, GRE or GMAT scores, and three letters of recommendation from academic references familiar with the applicant's scholarly accomplishments and potential for success in a master's program. Applicants will be considered from candidates who have an undergraduate grade point average of at least 3.5, or have earned no more than twelve hours in graduate school with a graduate GPA of at least 3.3, or from international candidates with U.S. baccalaureate degrees who have taken the GRE in the U.S. A satisfactory score on the Graduate Record Examination or the Graduate Management Admission Test (for the MBA Program) is required.

The University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer.
